

To Whoever Needs to Hear It

By Jesse Rodriguez

You don't realize the impact of your choices
Despite everything we do to avoid it
Something harmless to you
Can be harmful to you
Or you
Or you

The only necessity is to do what's necessary
Steer away from what might be arbitrary
Don't be afraid
To be wary

Please
For everyone
Only do the essential
Please
We're depending on you
And you
And you
